LEAH ZEINEDDINE

Western Sydney, NSW | Phone: [Add phone number] | Email: [Add email address]

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Reliable and motivated pharmacy assistant with experience in customer service, retail operations and supporting customers in a busy pharmacy environment. Currently studying a Diploma of Social Sciences at Western Sydney University, with an interest in criminal and community justice and supporting individuals and diverse communities. Brings clear communication, teamwork and a willingness to learn.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Pharmacy Assistant | Chemist Warehouse

March 2024 – Present

- Assist customers with product enquiries and help them locate items in store.
- Operate the register and process customer transactions accurately.
- Replenish shelves, organise stock and maintain a tidy retail environment.
- Assist with receiving and organising deliveries and restocking products.
- Work with team members to support daily store operations and customer service.
- Refer medicine-related questions requiring professional advice to the pharmacist.

EDUCATION

Diploma of Social Sciences | Western Sydney University

Currently studying

Completed High School

[Add high school name] | [Add year completed]

KEY SKILLS

- Customer service and communication
- Teamwork and collaboration
- Cash handling and point-of-sale operation
- Stock replenishment and organisation
- Time management, reliability and attention to detail

CAREER INTERESTS

Criminal and community justice, legal services, community support and roles that involve communicating with and assisting people.

REFEREES

Available on request.